verse 2:

Well the folk scene is dead

But he's holding out in the village

He's been writing songs speaking out

Against wealth and privilege

He says, "I don't believe in money

But a man could make him a killin'"

'Cause some of that stuff don't sound

Much different than Dylan

I hear down there it's changed you see

They're not as backwards

as they used to be

He's gone country, look at them boots
He's gone country, back to his roots
He's gone country, a new kind of suit
He's gone country, here he comes

Verse 3:

He commutes to L.A.
But he's got a house in the valley
But the bills are piling up
And the pop scene just ain't on the rally
And he says, "Honey I'm a serious composer Schooled in voice and composition"
But with the crime and the smog these days
This ain't no place for children
Lord, it sounds so easy, it shouldn't take long
Be back in the money in no time at all

He's gone country, look at them boots
He's gone country, back to his roots
He's gone country, a new kind of suit
He's gone country, here he comes

7 7 7 7 6

Yeah, he's gone country,

5 5 5 5 -5

A new kind of walk

7 7 7 6 5 5 5 5 -5
