Affair on 8th Avenue

5 5 -4 5 -5 6

The perfume that she wore

-5 5 -4 5 -5 5

was from some little store

-4 -4 4 -4 5 3

On the down side of town

5 -4 5 -5 6 5 -4 5 -5 5

But it lingered on long after she'd gone

-4 -4 4 -4 5 3

I remember it well

7 -8 8 8 8 -8 -8 7 7 7 -8

And our fingers entwined like ribbons of light

7 -8 8 8 8 -9 8 8 -9 8 7 -8

And we came through a doorway somewhere in the night

 Or, if you prefer, keep it in a lower octave:

((4 -4 5 5 5 -4 -4 4 4 4 -4

And our fingers entwined like ribbons of light

4 -4 5 5 5 -5 5 5 -5 5 4 -4

And we came through a doorway somewhere in the night))

Her long flowing hair came softly undone

And it lay all around

And she brushed it down as I stood by her side

In the warmth of her love

And she showed me her treasures of paper and tin

And we played a game only she could win

And she told me a riddle I'll never forget

Then left with the answer I've never found yet

How long, said she, can a moment like this

Belong to someone

What's wrong, what is right, when to live or to die

We must almost be born

So if you should ask me what secrets I hide

I'm only your lover, don't make me decide

The perfume that she wore was from some little store

On the down side of town
