Rudy, a message to you.

Just the intro, the sax is wonderful too, but I am struggling to play it in the same key. I'd forgot about the harmonica intro until I heard it on the radio the other night and nearly wet myself with excitement as I ran to get a moothie(scottish for mouth organ)so I could play it.

Two notes at a time, so the two lines above are played together.

Easier even than playing one note.

No space between notes, the minus signs don't count as a space, means a quaver(eighth note) and a space means a crotchet(quarter note). Hold the 6/7 for a wee bit longer(minim).

I couldn't quite make the other versions on the site work for me.
